

Uniting to Save Our Schools Action Dialogue:

Standing Up to CRT Attacks: Strategies & Actions

January 13 @ 7:30-9:00 p.m. (Eastern)

Register: <https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJEvceCoqjMoE90ECmUWJIw2OkL7gWkA5t2T>

In this Action Dialogue, we will discuss the attacks on Critical Race Theory (CRT) and how these threaten inclusion, diversity, and equity in our public schools. Panelists will share strategies for responding to these racist attacks, and we will brainstorm ways to collaborate and counter the anti-CRT campaigns. Join us!

Keith Eric Benson (New Jersey) - President of the Camden Education Association

Jennifer Lima (Rhode Island) - School Board Member, Kingstown

Glenabah Martinez (New Mexico) - Associate Professor, University of New Mexico Taos/Diné, Albuquerque

Terry Michal (Alabama) - Birmingham American Federation of Teachers and served 4-year term as elected school board member for Birmingham City Schools

John Petrovic (Alabama) - Professor, University of Alabama

Gabriel Tanglao (New Jersey) - NJ Education Association; Human and Civil Rights, Equity and Governance Committee

Denisha Jones - USOS Moderator, Sarah Lawrence College, Director Art of Teaching

Uniting to Save Our Schools (USOS) is a progressive, anti-racist organization (formerly Save our Schools March and National Call to Action) that sponsors "Action Dialogues" on critical issues impacting U.S. Public Schools.

<https://www.facebook.com/UnitingtoSaveOurSchools>
<http://www.unitingtosaveourschools.com/>