

The LLSS GSA is proud to present

Dr. Nolan Cabrera
The University of Arizona,
Tucson

Featured Lecture: “From Resistance to Renaissance:
Critical Race Theory, Mexican American Studies, and the Nationwide Ethnic Studies Movement”

Associate Professor
Center for the Study of Higher Education
Educational Policy Studies & Practice
University of Arizona

Faculty Affiliate:

Mexican American Studies
American Indian Studies
Graduate Interdisciplinary Program: Social, Cultural, and Critical Theory

Dr. Nolan Cabrera is an Associate Professor in the Center for the Study of Higher Education at the University of Arizona. He studies the racial dynamics on college campuses, with a particular focus on Whiteness, and was the only academic featured in the MTV documentary White People. Dr. Cabrera is also involved in the controversy surrounding the Tucson Unified School District's former Mexican American Studies program. He is a recipient of the prestigious education early career award, the Spencer/National Academy of Education postdoctoral fellowship. Dr. Cabrera's publications have appeared in the leading education and higher education journals such as American Educational Research Journal, Review of Higher Education, Journal of College Student Development, and Research in Higher Education, and his work has been used extensively in education, policy, and legal environments.

Date: Monday, April 23, 2018

Time: 5:00-6:30 pm

Location: Student Union Building (Fiesta A and B)