Yazzie/Martinez v. State of New Mexico

The Institute for American Indian Education (IAIE) is hosting a session to follow-up on the IAIE summit and provide information about the recent ruling on the Yazzie/Martinez v. State of New Mexico case which will have profound effects on early childhood education, curriculum, Native language programs, English language learners, students with disabilities, preparation of teachers and school leadership, and social welfare.

Panelists for this event will present perspectives from Native attorneys from the New Mexico Center on Law and Poverty, New Mexico State Legislature, educators, community, and families. If you plan to attend this event, please contact Penny Bird or Stefanie Calabaza at (505) 277-0537 or 277-8177; or email them at cpbirdsd@unm.edu, or elcala27@unm.edu. We look forward to seeing you again.
