

THE UNM COLLEGE OF POPULATION HEALTH, IN PARTNERSHIP WITH ENTITIES
ACROSS CAMPUS, INVITES YOU
TO AN EVENING FORUM IN RESPONSE TO THE RISE OF
MASS SHOOTINGS

CREATING A SAFE CAMPUS ENVIRONMENT: PREVENTING GUN VIOLENCE & RACISM

Thursday, November 21st
5:30-7:30pm
UNM North Campus
Domenici NW 3740

SPEAKERS

Carol Pierce,

Director of Family + Community Services,
City of ABQ

Diana Lopez,

Health Promotion Specialist,
New Mexico Department of Public Health

Tish Young,

University of New Mexico Police Department

Youth Representative,
Generation Justice

FORUM.
ACTION-ORIENTED DISCUSSION.
MUSIC. CANDELIGHT VIGIL.

Poetry reading by
Valerie Martinez,
Past Santa Fe Poet Laureate

OUR GOALS: Developing awareness of the extent and types of gun violence, developing awareness of how racism contributes to violence, producing recommendations for action related to violence prevention and supporting the campus as a safe and healthy community.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
HEALTH PROFESSIONS PROGRAMS

COLLEGE
OF NURSING

WOMEN'S RESOURCE CENTER

COLLEGE OF POPULATION HEALTH

HEALTH SCIENCES LIBRARY
& INFORMATICS CENTER

DEAN
OF STUDENTS

Additional sponsorship by: HSC Faculty Council, HSC Student Council, UNMPD

Please contact 505-272-4173 with questions or comments

