

Uplifting Their Voices: A Symposium on Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

March 24, 2021

8:30 to 3:30 pm MST

The UNM School of Law Native American Law Students Association (NALSA) is hosting this event to bring attention to the issue of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. The symposium will feature leading experts and practitioners of law and community services. NALSA will conduct a raffle with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the Coalition to Stop Violence Against Native Women.

Please register for the event at tinyurl.com/rxfewnjj to receive the passcode-protected weblink to attend the symposium. Registration is limited, so please register early. For more information, email Robert Waldroup at waldro@law.unm.edu. For more details go to the UNM NALSA Facebook page.
